NUTS & BOLTS OF U.S. REGULATORY DOSSIERS FOR GENETICALLY ENGINEERED PRODUCTS

September 19-21, 2023

specialtycropassistance.org

The Specialty Crop Regulatory Assistance (SCRA) is a collaborative, public-private effort to assist public and private-sector developers of biotechnology-derived specialty crops in their efforts to complete the complex US regulatory process for commercialization of biotechnology-derived crops.

This is the fifth edition of the Nuts & Bolts workshop focused on the practical aspects of developing dossiers on genetically engineered (GE) specialty crops for submission to US regulatory agencies

Funding for the workshop was provided through Award no.
